Devotional

Your relationship with Me doesn't depend on what's happening in your life. That's why you can praise Me and enjoy simply being with Me, even on your very worst day. To find Me in tough times, though, you have to really put your faith to work but I'm always close by.

As a Christian, you actually live in two places at once. One of those places is the world you can see, which is full of trouble. The other is the supernatural world, where I am the King of kings. To really know that I am with you even in your hard times you'll have to use your "trust muscles," which grow stronger every time you use them. Your hard times and troubles can build up your faith as you discover just how much you really can trust Me. I want you to work on making your trust muscles stronger.

Like exercising your body's muscles, you need to exercise your trust muscles every day. Do this by reading My Word, praising Me, and praying. Don't think too much about yourself and your worries keep bringing your thoughts back to Me. Make it a habit to tell Me that you trust Me. Remember, your strength comes from living close to Me. I'll make you strong and help you be ready for anything and everything that comes your way!

Philippians 2: 5-8 NASB

5 Have this attitude in yourselves which was also in Christ Jesus, 6 who, as He already existed in the form of God, did not consider equality with God something to be grasped, 7 but emptied Himself by taking the form of a bond-servant and [d]being born in the likeness of men. 8 And being found in appearance as a man, He humbled Himself by becoming obedient to the point of death: death on a cross.
