Today's Reading

2 Timothy 2:10-13

10 For this reason I endure all things for the sake of those who are chosen, so that they also may obtain the salvation which is in Christ Jesus and with it eternal glory. 11 The statement is trustworthy: For if we died with Him, we will also live with Him; 12 If we endure, we will also reign with Him; If we deny Him, He will also deny us; 13 If we are faithless, He remains faithful, for He cannot deny Himself.

CHURCH FAMILY

The Kearney Church is going to be helping to support Titus Robison on his mission trip to Italy. Any members who would like to participate in this support can make their checks payable to Kearney Church of Christ and put Titus Robison in the memo field.

"Thank you Kearney church family for your gift in helping us with our family mission trip to Italy this fall. Words cannot adequately express how much this means to us and grateful for the opportunity to share the Gospel and encourage the church there. Please continue to pray for God's leading and will to be done while we are there." --Titus, Angie, Bella, Kaewyn, Evalee, and Serena Robison

"We would like to thank the church for all the prayers, well wishes, cards, and support we have received lately. God bless you all for your thoughtfulness and concern." --Bob and Peg Shearer

"The truth is, you can bend Scripture to say just about anything you want it to say. You can bend it until it breaks. For those who count the Bible as sacred, interpretation is not a matter of whether to pick and choose, but how to pick and choose. We're all selective. We all wrestle with how to interpret and apply the Bible to our lives. We all go to the text looking for something, and we all have a tendency to find it. So the question we have to ask ourselves is this: are we reading with the prejudice of love, with Christ as our model, or are we reading with the prejudices of judgment and power, self-interest and greed? Are we seeking to enslave or liberate, burden or set free? If you are looking for Bible verses with which to support slavery, you will find them. If you are looking for verses with which to abolish slavery, you will find them. If you are looking for verses with which to oppress women, you will find them. If you are looking for verses with which to honor and celebrate women, you will find them. If you are looking for reasons to wage war, there are plenty. If you are looking for reasons to promote peace, there are plenty more. If you are looking for an outdated and irrelevant ancient text, that's exactly what you will see. If you are looking for truth, that's exactly what you will find. This is why there are times when the most instructive question to bring to the text is not, What does this say? but, What am I looking for? I suspect Jesus knew this when he said, "Ask and it will be given to you; seek and you will find; knock and the door will be opened to you" (Matthew 7:7). If you want to do violence in this world, you will always find the weapons. If you want to heal, you will always find the balm. With Scripture, we've been entrusted with some of the most powerful stories ever told. How we harness that power, whether for good or evil, oppression or liberation, changes everything."
