Today's Reading

Genesis 15:12-18

12. Now when the sun was going down, a deep sleep fell upon Abram; and behold, terror and great darkness fell upon him. 13. God said to Abram, "Know for certain that your descendants will be strangers in a land that is not theirs, where they will be enslaved and oppressed four hundred years. 14. But I will also judge the nation whom they will serve, and afterward they will come out with many possessions. 15. As for you, you shall go to your fathers in peace; you will be buried at a good old age. 16. Then in the fourth generation they will return here, for the iniquity of the Amorite is not yet complete." 17. It came about when the sun had set, that it was very dark, and behold, there appeared a smoking oven and a flaming torch which passed between these pieces. 18. On that day the Lord make a covenant with Abram, saying, "To your descendants I have given this land, From the river of Egypt as far as the great river, the river Euphrates:

There will be a schedule of the time slots available to anyone that would like to help, and those that have already committed, posted on the bulletin board in the foyer.

DEVOTIONAL

Hole-Hearted Devotion

Spiritual growth is very simple at its essence: receive God's love and forgiveness, and love Him in return. It's so simple, in fact, that at times we might become a bit presumptuous. Of course we love God!...Don't we?

On one occasion Jesus defined more precisely what the challenge is for believers. As it turns out, loving God is not merely a spiritual (soul) matter. It also includes emotional (heart), physical (strength), and intellectual (mind) aspects. It's broader than we may realize. It's also more intensive, demanding all of us: heart, soul, strength, and mind.

Sometimes believers get half-hearted in some of those areas, but that's not usually the problem. More often, we get "hole-hearted": some of the wholehearted love and attention we should devote to God leaks out and is directed to other pursuits. Those involvements are not necessarily bad; they're just not as beneficial as total devotion to God. When we give Him our complete love and attention, all the other incidentals of life fall into place.

We would do well to conduct a regular spiritual heart checkup. If we find holes, we should attend to them immediately so we can love God wholeheartedly. "Do this," Jesus said, "and you will live." Luke 10:28. And, oh, what a life it can be.

Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your strength and with all your mind. - Luke 10:27
