TODAY'S THOUGHT

God is looking for people through whom He can do the impossible. What a pity we plan to do only the things that we can do by ourselves.

Today's Reading

Matthew 14: 25-33

25. Now in the fourth watch of the night Jesus went to them, walking on the sea.

26. And when the disciples saw Him walking on the sea, they were troubled, saying, "It is a ghost!" And they cried out for fear. 27. But immediately Jesus spoke to them, saying, "Be of good cheer! It is I; do not be afraid." 28. And Peter answered Him and said, "Lord, if it is You, command me to come to You on the water." 29. So He said, "Come." And when Peter had come down out of the boat, he walked on the water to go to Jesus. 30.

But when he saw that the wind was boisterous, he was afraid; and beginning to sink he cried out, "Lord, save me!" 31. And immediately Jesus stretched out His hand and caught him, and said to him, "O you of little faith, why did you doubt?" 32.

And when they got into the boat, the wind ceased. 33. Then those who were in the boat came and worshiped Him, saying, "Truly You are the Son of God."

DEVOTIONAL

Born of Water

David Maxon

Jesus answered, "Truly, truly, I say to you, unless one is born of water and the Spirit, he cannot enter the kingdom of God."
John 3:5

Throughout the Bible there is a pattern of God saving through water. He saved Noah through water (1 Pet 3:20). He saved Israel from Pharaoh's armies by parting the waters of the Red Sea (Ex 14:15-16). The Israelites were brought through water once again to receive the Promised Land (Joshua 3). When God gives Isaiah the image of bringing his people through a kind of second Exodus, he uses the imagery of drying up the waters for the people to pass (Isa 44:26-28). David speaks of his own personal salvation from enemies as a passing through waters (Psalms 18:15-19).

With this emphasis on salvation through water, we should not be surprised then when we come to passages like this one where Jesus says we must be born again of water. Or when the apostle Paul speaks of baptism as a kind of grave that we go into and then come out to live a new life (Rom 6:3-6; Col 2:12). Or when Peter directly compares the salvation of Noah's family through the flood to our salvation in 1 Peter 3:20-21:

"...when God's patience waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was being prepared, in which a few, that is eight persons, were brought safely through water. Baptism, which corresponds to this, now saves you, not as a removal of dirt from the body but as an appeal to God for a good conscience, through the resurrection of Jesus Christ..." 1 Pet 3:20-21
