Today's Reading

2 Timothy 3:10-17

10. But you have carefully followed my doctrine, manner of life, purpose, faith, longsuffering, love, perseverance, 11. persecutions, afflictions, which happened to me at Antioch, at Iconium, at Lystra--what persecutions I endured. And out of them all the Lord delivered me. 12. Yes, and all who desire to live godly in Christ Jesus will suffer persecution. 13. But evil men and impostors will grow worse and worse, deceiving and being deceived. 14. but you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of knowing from whom you have learned them, 15. and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith with is in Christ Jesus. 16. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, 17. that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

The Pure in Heart See God

Wayne Jackson

Jesus said: "Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God" (Mt. 5:8). What is the meaning of the expression "see God"? It cannot be a reference to visibly perceiving Jehovah, for no one can see him now (John 1:18; 1 Tim. 6:16) and all, both pure and impure, will see him in the Judgment (Rom. 14:10f).

The term "see" is often used in the Scriptures in the sense of experiencing or entering participation or fellowship with something or someone. Consider, for example, John 3:3. Christ informed Nicodemus that unless one submits to the new birth, he cannot "see" the kingdom of God. Yet, immediately following, the Lord indicated that the new-birth process allows one to "enter into" the kingdom (v.5). Circle "see" and "enter" and connect them, for they are equivalent in this context.

Further, note John 3:36, where it is said that he who believes on Christ "hath" (i.e., experiences) eternal life; but he who obeys not (ASV) shall not "see" life. Again, the term "see" is shown to have a special meaning.

So it is in Matthew 5:8. The pure in heart will enter a relationship with God, possess an intimacy with him that the world does not have. Thus, in the margin of your text beside Matthew 5:8 write: see John 3:3-5,36. These helpful parallels will remind you of the proper meaning of "see" in Matthew 5:8.
