CHURCH FAMILY

A Double Portion

Blackaby

There had never been a man like Elijah. Elijah had raised the dead, called down fire from heaven and revealed God's plans for a devastating drought. The Israelites must have felt certain there would never be another prophet like Elijah, until Elisha came along. Moses was arguably the mightiest leader the Hebrews had ever followed, yet God prepared Joshua to accomplish what not even Moses had achieved. David's reign marked a high point for the nation of Israel, yet it was Solomon who carried out the task that was denied his father, by building the spectacular temple.

We can be tempted to put more trust in the leaders God gives us than in God himself. History teaches that, as wonderful as these godly people were, God always has another Moses, Elijah, or David. Often the successor will come with a double portion of their predecessors' spirits.

God's purposes do not depend on us. He has limitless ways to accomplish His will. The same God who led Moses could also use Joshua. If no one were willing to serve Him, the Lord would accomplish His work by His own divine power. We are not irreplaceable to the Lord. He will achieve His purposes. The question is this: Will we be a part of God's activity, or will He find someone else? We deceive ourselves if we think we are indispensable to God. Service to the Lord is an honor God bestows on us, not a favor we do for God.

He will see that His will is carried out. It may be that He has been preparing you to be that leader.

After they had crossed over, Elijah said to Elisha, "Tell me what I can do for you before I am taken from you." So, Elisha answered, "Please, let me inherit two shares of your spirit." - 2 Kings 2:9
