Today's Reading

Luke 10: 25-28

25 And behold, a lawyer stood up and put Him to the test, saying, "Teacher, what shall I do to inherit eternal life?" 26 And He said to him, "What is written in the Law? How does it read to you?" 27 And he answered, "You shall love the Lord your God with all your heart, and with all your soul, and with all your strength, and with all your mind; and your neighbor as yourself." 28 And He said to him, "You have answered correctly; do this and you will live." 29 But wanting to justify himself, he said to Jesus, "And who is my neighbor?"

CHURCH FAMILY

Registration is now open for Nebraska Youth Camp sessions! You can register online or print a hard copy and mail it. Find both of these options at nebraskayouthcamp.com.

Let's increase fellowship and sense of community by joining Realm on your phone! Realm is our online directory, and it is easy to use and allows you to receive church-wide texts and stay in touch with other members. In addition, we're trying something new! Sign up to receive a link to the church bulletin each Saturday evening. If you would like to use this service or need assistance in getting set up, email info@kearneychurchofchrist.org or contact Dan Hirschfeld or Libby Munsell.

DEVOTIONAL THOUGHT

Made for spirituality, we wallow in introspection. Made for joy, we settle for pleasure. Made for justice, we clamor for vengeance. Made for relationship, we insist on our own way. Made for beauty, we are satisfied with sentiment. But new creation has already begun. The sun has begun to rise. Christians are called to leave behind, in the tomb of Jesus Christ, all that belongs to the brokenness and incompleteness of the present world... That, quite simply, is what it means to be Christian: to follow Jesus Christ into the new world, God's new world, which he has thrown open before us.
