DEVOTIONAL

Infinite Treasure

Knowing God and having Him reside within us is a treasure of infinite value. Jesus likened this value to that of a perfect pearl. The collector would readily sell everything he had in order to possess this one matchless pearl (Matt. 13:45-46). Our relationship with God places an immeasurable value on our life. The treasures of God's wisdom and knowledge are available to us through Christ (Col. 2:2-3). His love now fills us. His incomprehensible peace surrounds our heart and mind (Phil. 4:7). When Jesus dwells in our life, everything available to Christ dwells within us (Eph. 3:19).

Paul was comparing our lives with the clay pots commonly used in his day. The contents of the earthen vessels, not the containers themselves, were of great value. The jars would become chipped and broken and would deteriorate over time, but nobody thought of the jar- they were interested in its contents. Paul noted that our great possession is that which God has placed within us. When people focus on us they see a frail, imperfect, and deteriorating vessel. Nothing that comes from our flesh is worthy of praise. Our bodies are aging and losing strength (2 Cor. 4:16). Only as we allow God to fill us and renew our inner self will people see a treasure of immeasurable worth.

Don't focus on outward appearances and physical strength, for these deteriorate. Rather, allow the Holy Spirit to convince us of the infinite treasure that is within us because of God's presence.

Now we have this treasure in clay jars, so that this extraordinary power may be from God and not from us. - 2 Corinthians 4:7
