Today's Reading

Luke 9:51-62

51. When the days drew near for Him to be taken up, He set his face to go to Jerusalem. 52. And He sent messengers ahead of Him. On their way they entered a village of the Samaritans to make ready for Him; 53. but they did not receive Him, because His face was set toward Jerusalem. 54. When His disciples James and John saw it, they said, "Lord, do you want us to command fire to come down from heaven and consume them?" 55. But He turned and rebuked them. 56. Then they went on to another village. 57. As they were going along the road, someone said to Him, "I will follow you wherever you go." 58. And Jesus said to him, "Foxes have holes, and birds of the air have nests; but the Son of Man has nowhere to lay His head." 59. To another He said, "Follow me." But he said, "Lord, first let me go and bury my father." 60. But Jesus said to him, "Let the dead bury their own dead; but as for you, go and proclaim the Kingdom of God." 61. Another said, "I will follow you, Lord; but let me first say farewell to those at my home." 62. Jesus said to him, "No one who puts a hand to the plow and looks back is fit for the Kingdom of God."

DEVOTIONAL

No Spiritual Bypasses Hudson and Campbell

The United States Interstate Highway System is designed to maximize efficiency and ease of travel for drivers going long distances (though you might dispute this assertion at certain times). When traffic around a large city becomes congested and cumbersome, often a bypass is constructed to allow travelers to avoid the city as they travel.

Some of us take this same approach in our spiritual relationships. We want to strengthen our relationship with God, but sometimes other relationships get in the way. When a personal relationship becomes too complicated, demanding, time-consuming, or otherwise dysfunctional, we may try to bypass that person in our eagerness to get closer to God.

Our spiritual relationships, however, can't be like that. Though we may try to disconnect our unpleasant relationships with people from our desired relationship with God, Jesus said those relationships are inextricably connected. God does not want our offering when we know one of our personal relationships is in need of immediate attention. John emphasized the same point, but not as tactfully: "Whoever claims to love God yet hates his brother is a liar" (1 John 4:20)

There is no quick bypass to God. The road to spiritual growth often leads through messy personal relationships that are essential for us to address.

Leave your gift there in front of the altar. First go and be reconciled to your brother, and then come and offer your gift - Matthew 5:24
