Today's Reading

1 John 2:27-29

27. But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him. 28. And now, little children, abide in Him, that when He appears, we may have confidence and not be ashamed before Him at His coming. 29. If you know that He is righteous, you know that everyone who practices righteousness is born of Him.'

Today's Thought

Now may the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that you may abound in hope by the power of the Holy Spirit - Romans 15:13

DEVOTIONAL

Building God's House

David Maxson

Reading for May 11: 2 Chronicles 2-5

"But who is able to build him a house, since heaven, even highest heaven cannot contain him? Who am I to build a house for him, except as a place to make offerings before him?"

2 Chronicles 2:6

These words from Solomon are echoed in the book of Acts by both Stephen and the apostle Paul (Acts 7:48; 17:24). Instead, we are told that we, as God's people, are the house where God has chosen to dwell (1 Cor 3:16; 6:19; Eph 2:21-22; 1 Pet 2:4-5).

What that means is that we are building God a different kind of house. Solomon built God a house with stones and precious metals. We are building God a house with human hearts. What are some ways we can build on God's house?

1. Being a good parent/mentor. Spend time with your kids and use that time wisely teaching them about God. If you don't have kids of your own, find a child into whom you can invest your time and energy.

2. Teaching others the gospel. Tell others about what God has done for you in your life. Share the good news of Jesus Christ with others.

Father, who are we that we should be involved in the great work you have left us? Help us to invest all our energy into building a house for you to dwell in!

Card Corner

Stamped & addressed cards for those needing encouragement are available on the table in the back of the worship room. Please pick up one or two today and let them know you're thinking of them.
