Devotional

In Philippians 4:6-7, Paul sums up an entire theology of prayer practice in very concise form: "Pray with gratitude, and the peace of Christ, which is bigger than knowledge or understanding, will guard both your mind and your heart in Christ Jesus." Only a pre-existent attitude of gratitude, a deliberate choice of love over fear, a desire to be positive instead of negative, will allow us to live in the spacious place Paul describes as "the peace of Christ."

In the end, it is not our own doing, or grace would not be grace. It is God's gift, not a reward for work well done. It is nothing for us to be boastful about. We are God's work of art, created in Christ Jesus. All we can do is be what God's Spirit makes us to be, and be thankful to God for the riches God has bestowed on us. Humility, gratitude, and loving service to others are probably the most appropriate responses we can make.

Today's Reading

1 Cor 13:8-13 NASB

⁸ Love never fails; but if there are gifts of prophecy, they will be done away with; if there are tongues, they will cease; if there is knowledge, it will be done away with. ⁹ For we know in part and prophesy in part; ¹⁰ but when the perfect comes, the partial will be done away with. ¹¹ When I was a child, I used to speak like a child, think like a child, reason like a child; when I became a man, I did away with childish things. ¹² For now we see in a mirror dimly, but then face to face; now I know in part, but then I will know fully, just as I also have been fully known. ¹³ But now faith, hope, and love remain, these three; but the greatest of these is love.

CHURCH FAMILY

Our beloved church family,

Our hearts are breaking to share this news with you, but our precious wife, mother, grandmother, and friend went home to be with Jesus the evening of January 4, 2022. She had a rapid decline and we are bereft at her sudden departure.

Trudy, or as most called her, Peep, loved. She loved. We have no words other than to encourage you to take the love that she showed to you and share it with others. Tell the story of Jesus as she told it, in kindness and in love.

With all our love,
Peep's family
