Today's Reading

Psalms 23

1. The Lord is my shepherd I shall not want. 2. He makes me lie down in green pastures; He leads me beside quiet waters. 3. He restores my soul; he guides me in the paths of righteousness For His name's sake. 4. Even though I walk through the valley of the shadow of death, I fear no evil, for You are with me; Your rod and Your staff, they comfort me. 5. You prepare a table before me in the presence of my enemies; You have anointed my head with oil; My cup overflows. 6. Surely goodness and lovingkindness will follow me all the days of my life. And I will dwell in the house of the Lord forever.

DEVOTIONAL

The Hurrier I Get

(sweet tea for the soul)

We're all in a hurry these days. Our employers sometimes breathe down our necks to rush an important project through too quickly, often poor results- proving the adage that there's never enough time to do it right the first time but always enough time to do it over again. In this age of instant everything, it is hard not to interpret God's delays and denials. We want what we want when we want it! Yet the discipline of delay is another expression of God's love for us. The apostle Paul was a get-up-and-go kind of guy. He shared the gospel in at least fifty cities, and would likely have continued sharing if he had not been imprisoned. The energetic apostle must have wondered what possible good he could do stuck behind bars, yet in those quiet hours he was able to sit down and write his letters to the church. In the stillness of a sedentary life, Paul completed what God wanted him to accomplish, though he would likely never have imagined his sentence to be God's will for his life.

The plans of the diligent certainly lead to advantage, but everyone who is in a hurry certainly comes to poverty- Proverbs 21:5
