Today's Reading

Exodus 3:2-5

2. And the Angel of the Lord appeared to him in a flame of fire from the midst of a bush. So he looked, and behold, the bush was burning with fire, but the bush was not consumed. 3. Then Moses said, "I will now turn aside and see this great sight, why the bush does not burn." 4. So when the Lord saw that he turned aside to look, God called to him from the midst of the bush and said, "Moses, Moses!" And he said, "Here I am." 5. Then He said, "Do not draw near this place. Take your sandals off your feet, for the place where you stand is holy ground."

DEVOTIONAL

Emotional Freedom

All great spirituality teaches about letting go of what we don't need and who we are not. Often these are addictive feelings--and they are addictive. Then, when we can get little enough, naked enough, and poor enough, we'll find that the little place where we really are is, ironically, more than enough and all that we need. At that place, we will have nothing to prove to anybody and nothing to protect from other people.

That place is called emotional freedom. It's the freedom of the children of God (Galatians 5:1). Such people can connect with everybody because they are not so attached to themselves and their hurts, memories, and neediness. To live from this place cuts the roots of violence at their very foundation, for now there is no irrational basis for fear, anger, self-protection, or hatred. Negativity must be nipped in the bud- that is to say, in the mind and in the emotions- or it will invariably lead to negative actions and behaviors.
