Today's Reading

Colossians 2:1-10

1. For I want you to know what a great conflict I have for you and those in Laodicea, and for as many as have not seen my face in the flesh, 2. that their hearts may be encouraged, being knit together in love, and attaining to all riches of the full assurance of understanding, to the knowledge of the mystery of God, both of the Father and of Christ, 3. in whom are hidden all the treasures of wisdom and knowledge. 4. Now this I say lest anyone should deceive you with persuasive words. 5. For though I am absent in the flesh, yet I am with you in spirit, rejoicing to see your good order and the steadfastness of your faith in Christ. 6. As you therefore have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, 7. rooted and built up in Him and established in the faith, as you have been taught, abounding in it with thanksgiving. 8. Beware lest anyone cheat you through philosophy and empty deceit, according to the tradition of men, according to the basic principles of the world, and not according to Christ. 9. For in Him dwells all the fullness of the Godhead bodily; 10. and you are complete in Him, who is the head of all principality and power.

DEVOTIONAL

The Watcher and the Seeker

God perfectly knows our thoughts, actions, desires, and passions. It is in His heart to be involved in His creation. He is never distant and unconcerned but constantly watching over us with righteousness, love, and care. Seeking God is about intentionally dedicating time to commune with Him in prayer, knowing Him more by reading and meditating on Scripture, enjoying His presence in worship, and applying His teachings in how we live. It needs a deliberate and sincere discipline to pursue Him.

Beloved, knowing that God constantly watches over us and pursues us, we must seek Him with the desire to build an intimate relationship with Him and allow that to shape the way we live. It is by wholeheartedly pursuing God that we grow in spiritual maturity. It is by living to please Him above all our priorities that we find true value and purpose in life! Hallelujah!

*"The Lord looked down from heaven upon the children of men, to see if there were any that did understand, and seek God."
- Psalms 14:2*
