Today's Reading

Hebrews 2:14-18

14. Therefore, since the children share in flesh and blood, He Himself likewise also partook of the same, that through death He might render powerless him who had the power of death, that is, the devil, 15. and might free those who through fear of death were subject to slavery all their lives. 16. For assuredly He does not give help to angels, but He gives help to the descendant of Abraham. 17. Therefore, He had to be made like His brethren in all things, so that He might become a merciful and faithful high priest in things pertaining to God, to make propitiation for the sins of the people. 18. For since He Himself was tempted in that which He has suffered, He is able to come to the aid of those who are tempted.

CHURCH FAMILY

Community Helping Day- February 17th. Held at Kearney Church of Christ from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. This is to help many of our friends in the community that are struggling, especially those who are challenged to provide groceries for little kids. DEVOTIONAL

To Love is to allow something to flow through us

Jesus commanded us to love, so we know love is not just a feeling, since we cannot command feelings. Love is mostly a decision.

Jesus did not say:

When we get healed, love.

When we grow up, love.

When we feel love, love.

When we get it together and have dealt with all of our emotional wounds, then we must love.

No, the commandment for all of us is to love now and thus fill the tragic gaps of every moment.

We know the love of God much more when we ourselves can "do love" than when people tell us we are loveable. (That just feels good) We can always disbelieve the second, but the first is an unexplainable power from beyond ourselves. We know we are being used and the "living water" is flowing through us.

"He who believes in Me, as the scripture has said, out of his heart will flow rivers of living water." - John 7:38
