Today's Reading

2 Corinthians 4:16-18

16. Therefore we do not lose heart. Even though our outward man is perishing, yet the inward man is being renewed day by day. 17. For our light affliction, which is but for a moment, is working for us a far more exceeding and eternal weight of glory, 18. while we do not look at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen. For the things which are seen are temporary, but the things which are not seen are eternal.

DEVOTIONAL

A Visible Faith

Mark 2:5

Wayne Jackson

Once more, Jesus had returned to the city of Capernaum. When the crowds learned of his whereabouts, they pressed near to the house where he was, jamming even the doorway, and he proclaimed the word to them (Mark 2:1). Being aware of the lord's power to affect miraculous healing, some benevolent men were determined to bring one of their friends, an invalid, into the Master's presence. Because of the crowded doorway, they could not gain access to the room in which Christ was teaching. Not to be dissuaded by the circumstances, they went up on the housetop, uncovered the roof (opened a passageway), and lowered their friend into the company of the Great Physician. At this point, the inspired writer has a very significant statement. He says: "And Jesus seeing their faith said to the one sick with palsy, 'Son, your sins are forgiven'" (v.5). Note that expression, seeing their faith. Faith is an intellectual and emotional disposition; It is not tangible. It cannot be seen literally.

What the Lord actually saw was the action of these men. From the divine vantage point, faith is acknowledged when it manifests itself in action.

This account agrees wonderfully with the challenge of James. Yes, a man will say you have faith, and I have works: show me your faith apart from your works, and I, by my works, will show you my faith. God sees your faith and honors it when that faith is manifested in doing His will. These verses are quite at variance with the denominational philosophy that alleges faith alone saves.

Today's Thought

WHAT IF WE BEGAN TO TREAT OUR BIBLES THE WAY WE TREATED OUR CELL PHONES?

WHAT IF WE.....

.....Carried it with us everywhere?

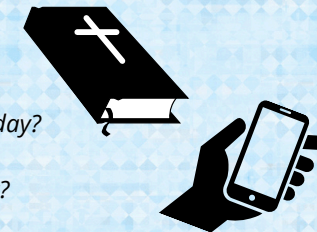

.....Turned back to get it if we forgot it?

.....Checked it for messages throughout the day?

.....Used it in case of emergencies?

.....Spent an hour or more each day using it?

WHAT WOULD OUR LIVES LOOK LIKE?
