Today's Reading

Luke 6:46-49

46. "Why do you call Me, 'Lord, Lord,' and do not do what I say? 47. Everyone who comes to Me and hears My words and acts on them, I will show you whom he is like: 48. he is like a man building a house, who dug deep and laid a foundation on the rock; and when a flood occurred, the torrent burst against that house and could not shake it, because it had been well built. 49. But the one who has heard and has not acted accordingly, is like a man who built a house on the ground without any foundation; and the torrent burst against it and immediately it collapsed, and the ruin of that house was great."

DEVOTIONAL

The Lord Hears

God has designed His kingdom so that Christians with kindred spirits join together. It is exciting when we find another Christian who shares the same concerns and burdens that we do! Often God will graciously bring another believer alongside us who will undergird us in the work and concerns God has placed on our heart.

God releases a powerful dimension of His presence to His children when they unite in heart and mind regarding His kingdom. The Bible says that when two or more Christians meet and reverently discuss matters concerning the Lord, God is pleased to listen to them and to respond to their concerns. When two or three believers agree in prayer, God chooses to respond to their unity by making His powerful presence known in their midst (Matt. 18:19-20). When two people walked together and discussed the confusing events of Christ's crucifixion, Jesus joined them and helped them understand the events of their day (Luke 24:13-32)

If we are carrying concerns about our family or our church or our friends, ask God to bring like-minded believers around us to share the burden with us in conversation and in prayer. Don't attempt to bear our load of cares on our own. We may pray about them, but we will miss the blessing of uniting together with a group of believers who join together to intercede for one another and to enjoy God's presence. Everything God has woven into the fabric of His kingdom promotes interdependence, not individualism. As we face our concerns, deliberately seek out other believers with whom we can stand and share our load.

At that time those who feared the Lord spoke to one another. The Lord took notice and listened. So a book of remembrance was written before Him for those who feared Yahweh and had high regard for His name.
