Today's Reading

James 3:13-18

13 Who among you is wise and understanding? Let him show by his good behavior his deeds in the gentleness of wisdom. 14 But if you have bitter jealousy and selfish ambition in your heart, do not be arrogant and so lie against the truth. 15 This wisdom is not that which comes down from above, but is earthly, natural, demonic. 16 For where jealousy and selfish ambition exist, there is disorder and every evil thing. 17 But the wisdom from above is first pure, then peace-loving, gentle, reasonable, full of mercy and good fruits, impartial, free of hypocrisy. 18 And the fruit of righteousness is sown in peace by those who make peace.

DEVOTIONAL

Thresholds, physical places of transition, are ubiquitous in our everyday lives, and we can use them for our spiritual practice:

In the days ahead, become aware of all the times you cross a threshold. This might be moving from one space to another - entering through a doorway, transitioning from one activity to the next, or tending the thresholds of the day, especially at dawn and dusk. Pause at each and offer a short blessing, becoming aware of the possibilities alive in the moment. See if the threshold helps call forth the thinness of the moment, making the value of the divine more accessible.
