DEVOTIONAL

Love Assumes the best

Love has no limits. Love never says, "You've gone too far. I can't love you now." "All things" means everything is included. Christlike love leaves no doubt in the mind of another that we will continue to love steadfastly. Do those close to us know that they can fail and do foolish things, yet we will not falter in our love for them? Are others assured that even when they hurt us, we still love them, holding nothing against them?

Love assumes the best about others. If someone inadvertently offends us, we choose to believe the offense was unintentional. If someone seeks to harm us, we "bear all things," forgive unconditionally. If a positive light can be shed on a difficult encounter, we grasp it. If someone continually provokes us, we "endure all things." We never lose hope in the ones we love. We practice the same unconditional love towards others that Christ gives to us.

Paul said that he was nothing if he had the faith to move mountains, the tongue of an angel, and the gift of prophecy to understand all mysteries, yet did not have God's love. It is unacceptable to say, "Well, I just can't love people that way!" When God loves people through us, this is the only kind of love He has! Read 1 Corinthians 13 with gratitude that God has already expressed this complete and selfless love to us. Pray and ask Him to express it through us now, to others.

Love... bears ALL things, believes ALL things, hopes ALL things, endures ALL things-1 Corinthians 13:7
-Henry & Richard Blackaby
