Today's Reading

John 11:21-27

21. Martha then said to Jesus, "Lord, if You had been here, my brother would not have died. 22. Even now I know that whatever You ask of God, God will give you." 23. Jesus said to her, "Your brother will rise again." 24. Martha said to Him, "I know that he will rise again in the resurrection on the last day." 25. Jesus said to her, "I am the resurrection and the life; he who believes in Me will live even if he dies, 26. and everyone who lives and believes in Me will never die. Do you believe this?" 27. She said to Him, "Yes, Lord; I have believed that You are the Christ, the Son of God, even He who comes into the world."

DEVOTIONAL

We are Salt

God's people are His preserving agents for a world that is corrupt and degenerating because of sin. Our life is designed and commissioned by God to enhance a community and to preserve what is good and right. There is a deep significance today for a godly life that is involved in its community. The presence of Christ in us makes all that He is available to others. His salvation can free an addict, mend a broken home, heal the pain of the past, restore a wayward child, and comfort a grieving heart. All of this is available to those around us as Christ expresses His life through us.

If we are not in a right relationship with our Lord, however, Jesus said we are like salt that has lost its saltiness and is, therefore, good for nothing. None of God's saving grace and power can be dispensed through us to others. How do we test the "saltiness" of our life? Look at our family. Are we preserving it from the destructive influences that surround it? Examine our workplace. Are the sinful influences in our work environment being halted because we are there? Observe our community. Is it a better place because we are involved in it? What about our church? The evidence that we have been used by God as a preserving agent is that things are becoming spiritually better around us instead of worse. If people around us are deteriorating spiritually, we need to go to our Lord and allow Him to adjust our lives so that we can be used to preserve others.

"You are the salt of the earth. But if the salt should lose its taste, how can we be made salty? It is no longer good for anything but to be thrown out and trampled on by men." - Matthew 5:13
